CHANCE FOR YOUNG MAN

New England Girl Has Leaning Toward Hawaii.

A sweet young miss of Providence, Rhode Island, evidently of a romantic turn of mind, has written to the Hawaii Promotion Committee that she would be pleased to get into correspondence with a wealthy young man of Honolulu. Object, not matrimony, but merely a desire to learn something of the Hawaiian Islands in this informal and attractive way.

The young lady, however, requested the Promotion Committee to send her some literature on Hawaii, and in a P. S.—most young ladies disdain closing a letter without adding a P. S.—she asks the secretary to request a young man to write to her. Here's a chance in a thousand, it being presumed that the New England girl is pretty. No photograph, however, was enclosed with the letter.

FEASTED UNTIL STAR CAME

The celebration of the feast of Yom Kippur, or Day of Atonement, was observed in Honolulu yesterday by the Jewish residents. From sundown on Sunday evening until the appearance of the evening star last night the Jews fasted. In the meantime, although no collective religious ceremony was held, the orthodox ones prayed.

Most of the Jewish business houses were closed, some, however, remaining open, after a few hours spent by the proprietors in observing the religious portion of the celebration.

The sale of Chartley Hall, the ancestral home of the Earl of Ferrers, recalls to the Marquis de Fontenoy the historic hanging of the fourth Earl Ferrers, May, 1760, for the murder of his steward, a man of the name of Harold. The earl, who killed the man in the most cold-blooded fashion, was tried by his peers in the House of Lords, and found guilty unanimously, the sentence of death being pronounced upon him by Lord High Chancellor Henley, who presided at the trial as lord high steward. The earl was allowed to drive to the gallows in his own state carriage, drawn by six horses, which was followed by a hearse and six, and it is on record that the rope with which he was hanged was of silk instead of hemp.

It is said that when President Polk visited Boston he was impressively received at Faneuil Hall Market. Secretary Rhodes walked in front of him down the length of the market announcing in loud tones: "Make way, gentlemen, for the President of the United States! The President of the United States! Fellow citizens, make room!" The chief executive had stepped into one of the stalls to look at some game, when Mr. Rhodes, the secretary, turned around suddenly, and finding himself alone, promptly changed his tone, and exclaimed: "My gracious, where has that darned idiot got to?"

Copies now on sale at all book stores of the Hawaiian Forester and Agriculturist, a monthly magazine of forestry, entomology and agriculture, issued under the direction of the Board of Commissioners of Agriculture and Forestry. Price 10 cents a copy, $1.00 per year by mail to any address. Subscriptions received at the Gazette office.

As Thomas W. Lawson proceeds with his story on "Frenzied Finance" the impression grows that Mr. Lawson is more frenzied than his finance.—Chicago Inter Ocean.
